

LATEST SCREEN PLAYS OFFERED FOR WEEK

Miss Talmadge Princess Star In Love Comedy

"A Temperamental Wife" To Be Attraction There for Three Days.

Girls who have decided to marry men who are not interested in woman and who will not even speak to look at other women after marriage, may benefit by the experiences of Billie Billings, in "A Temperamental Wife," starring Constance Talmadge and which will begin its run of three days at the Princess theater, commencing Sunday.

Miss Talmadge plays the role of Billie Billings, strongly determined to marry only a man who is averse to all women. She finds this person in Senator Newton of Nevada, a rather timid bachelor who is so bashful and of a type so exactly like her "ideal" that she determines to marry this man regardless of cost.

Unlike other courtships, Billie becomes the suitor and the bashful gentleman from Nevada does his best to keep from entangling domestic alliances.

But the wiles of the capricious Billie are too strong for the senator. He falls victim to her charming self and a small period of wedded bliss ensues.

Then follows a series of unusual incidents in which Billie, the burglar count and the senator figure. The senator firmly refuses to fire his female stenographer and Billie runs away with the count.

This is almost the last straw for the senator until the resourceful Billie engineers a stunt that sent scores of wealthy tourists scampering out of their early morning slumbers and the senator on a run that exceeded anything that he had ever accomplished in his political campaigns.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

500 DOCTORS TO SEEK ISOLATION OF THE FLU GERM

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Isolation of the influenza germ will be one of the chief problems before 500 leading physicians of the United States and Canada, who will be in session here for a week beginning Feb. 23 as delegates to the fourth annual conference of the American Congress on Internal Medicine.

More than 50 of the leading universities and medical schools will cooperate with the congress, which is held under the auspices of the American College of Physicians.

Progress that has been made during the last year in combating the influenza epidemic will be reported to the congress by Prof. E. C. Rosenow, of the Mayo foundation, Rochester, Minn.

Most effective means of curbing these epidemic waves of influenza will be determined upon. The medical departments of the United States navy and the United States public health and marine hospital service will be represented in deliberations.

Clinics will be offered at all leading hospitals during the mornings and regular sessions of the convention will be held in the afternoon and evening at the congress. The clinics will cover the entire field of medical practice except surgery and will be directed by physicians of international reputation.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Charlie Chaplin Stars In "A Day's Pleasure"
Strand Theater Offers Double Bill for Week Which Includes Mae Murray Feature

Charlie Chaplin's latest million-dollar production, "A Day's Pleasure," will be shown for a week's run commencing Sunday at the Strand theater.

This is Chaplin's fourth of a long series of comedies produced in his own studio. It is of the same series as "A Dog's Life" and "Shoulder Arms."

What is declared to be the funniest incident ever filmed takes place at the head of his family, takes his flock in the family auto, a dilapidated car, and starts off for a journey to the country. The progress of the trip is impeded at a busy street corner when a traffic difficulty ensues.

Finding that the pleasure journey is not forthcoming, the family resorts to an excursion boat where a negro jazz band, popcorn boy, and stormy weather turn things into an uproar. The comedy is declared as great or greater than anything Chaplin has previously accomplished.

Mae Murray Feature.
Do you know the A. B. C. of love? Kate didn't! Kate, in fact, knew no A. B. C.'s at all. She couldn't even read or write, but she was a winsome, little creature who could make a man's heart melt.

When Harry Bryant discovered what an adorable little thing she was, he took her off to the parson one morning, and when they returned to

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

MOTION PICTURE CALENDAR.

Majestic.
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday—Irene Castle in "The Amateur Wife."
Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Bryant Washburn in "The Six Best Cellars."

Strand.
Sunday and All Week—Charlie Chaplin in "A Day's Pleasure" and Mae Murray in "The A. B. C. of Love."
Monday, Tuesday—Constance Talmadge in "A Temperamental Wife."
Wednesday and Thursday—Taylor Holmes in "Three Black Eyes."
Friday and Saturday—Monroe Salisbury in "The Phantom Melody."

Savoy.
Sunday—Billie Burke in "Sadie Love."
Monday and Tuesday—"The Veiled Marriage."
Wednesday and Thursday—Zasu Pitts in "The Third Generation."
Friday and Saturday—"Love, Honor and 7" with Ellen Cassidy.

Princess.
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday—Constance Talmadge in "A Temperamental Wife."
Wednesday and Thursday—Taylor Holmes in "Three Black Eyes."
Friday and Saturday—Monroe Salisbury in "The Phantom Melody."

Army Life Essays READY FOR GRADING
Essays prepared on army life by school children of Memphis and Shelby county are being turned in to Capt. Frank Strickland at the recruiting office here. The city school children prepared their essays at home under special authority from the war department, but county school children wrote theirs in school Friday. Papers prepared by county pupils are being graded by their respective teachers and only the best will be submitted to headquarters.

Meridian Masons GOING TO VICKSBURG
A large delegation of Meridian Masons, the officers of the three lodges and many others, will attend the meeting of the Mississippi Masonic Grand Lodge at Vicksburg the first three days of next week. The Meridian delegation is going armed with inducement to secure the 1920 stated communication.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Read News Scimitar Wants.

Irene Castle Star at Majestic in Ultra Play

"The Amateur Wife," Story of New York Society, Has First Showing Sunday.

Of all the trine which Irene Castle, the famous dancer and screen star, has made abroad, she never returned to America in a quieter garb and under more novel circumstances than she did for the benefit of the motion picture camera recently when her latest production, "The Amateur Wife," was being filmed. The picture is to be shown at the Majestic theater Sunday for four days.

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.

Wearing the plainest of clothes and with her hair in pigtails, Mrs. Castle walked down the gangplank of a recently arrived liner at a New York pier while the other passengers gaped and snickered at what appeared to be an unusually awkward immigrant girl. No one suspected it was the well-known screen beauty, so effective was her costume.

A miniature musical comedy enacted upon the stage of one of the best known New York theaters was photographed for "The Amateur Wife."

According to the story, Mrs. Castle is a French convent girl coming to New York to visit her mother, whom she hasn't seen for years and consequently doesn't know is the queen of a jazzy Broadway musical show.